The leaders of the Democratic party should never forget, shif the people who are ranged under the Democratic organization should keep constantly before their minds, the fact that they are in opposition. That which is practically essential, first of all, is such a distribution of majorities as will enable us to control a sufficient number of Stapes to reach and influence the administration of the General Government. Doctrines will, as common experience shows, take care of themselves, and in any event can be delivered with most effect and authority from positions entrenched by popular sanction, without which indeed they are as nothing, having neither the The remarks of the Hopkinsville Con-servative preceding the contract made for the completion of the Evansville, Hen-derson and Nashville railroad, published in event can be celtivered with most effect and authority from positions entrenched by popular sanction, without which indeed they are as nothing, having neither the lorce of circumstances nor the color of law to carry them out. Hence purely doctrinal discussions, involving all manuer of shades and degrees of opinion and construction and poculiarly reasonable to misunderstandings, are to be avoided as far as possible, and had better be ignored altogether by an opposition which seeks to increase he as straight from the ranks of the enemy.

The Democratic party is assentially the party of a regular, constitutional mode of conducting the government; of an equal and just administration of the laws, of fair and impartial taration; and of that sort of progress which implies a total obscuration of the war and its passions and a return to a condition of grautine peace all over the land. Beyond these general aims and purposes, as opposed to the most insolent despotism which ever speake in the same of Republicanism and most shameless speciacle of corruption that was ever lifted up before the eyes of an intelligent and honest people, the Democratic leaders need not seek to go. All cles is abstraction, and we cannot afford to dissolve ourselves in visions however pleasing.

We want more votes. They are to be

We want more votes. They are to be pursuance of authority of the stockholders. At the annual meeting of stockholders on the 7th of October, 1869, the board of time invective, whose tendency is to tight-ea party lines. It is not our interest to tighten party lines. That is the inter-est of the Republicans. Our interest is to become party lines, and the most direct and effectual way to de this, at the same time that it is the most truthful, is to break the force of the wanter assumption that on the 7th of October, 1869, the board of directors reported the centract to the stockholders, and the stockholders accepted, adopted, ratified and approved it almost unanimously, only 119 votes being cast against it. Certainly Gen. Boyle did not make the contract. The whole parties interested made it.

Whether it is or is not a wise and good contract, will depend on results. There is time that it is the most truthful, is to break the force of the wanton assumption that Radicalism is loyalty, by setting before the minds of the Republicans themselves the gigantic fraud which has been put upon them. It is a fraud and has been a fraud from the Fourth of July, 1861, to this pres-ent memsul; and, if it is permitted to con-tinue in power, it will inevitably plunge us into other revolutions or completely alter our system of government, giving us neith-er security nor peace in 100m of its contribuer security nor peace in 100m of its contribu-tion of instability and corruption. Whether it is or is not a wise and good contract will depend on results. There is no doubt the road can and will be built under the contract. It will be of immense advantage to the State and to the particular section through which it passes. We have not heard of any other plan on which to complete this road since the retural of the counties to make subscriptions. We learn the road owes a floating debt of about $125,000 to $125,000, and bonds have been issued to the amount of promise: have come to naught. Its first and leading proposition, the central figure about which its verious arguments have circled, is not realized after eight years of maladministration and taleshood. The Union is not restored, and in order to prevent its restoration the laws are not only defed, but perjured, at the instigation of nothing higher nor holier than official lust. The Republican party has no policy which is not comdebt of about $128,000 to $185,000, and the interest has not been paid. The road had to be sold to pay these debts, unless a contract could be made to prevent it. The contract made provides for the payment of interest on all bonds and dividends on the preferred stock, for the payment of all interest to the State of Tennesce for the building of thirty-five miles of road, and equipping can party has no policy which is not com-posed of one half plunder and the other half promise, it is the party neither of phi-lanthropy nor peace, much less the party of the Union which it has destroyed. HE COURIER-JOURNAL IS Sconsolidated edition of three of the oldest and most widely-circuthe oldest and most widely-circulated newspapers in the Union, which will be union the Union, which is the Louisville Journal, the Louisville Journal, and the Louisville Dimoniar. The cossolidation dates from the 6th of November, 1868. No paper in the West or South is mead by a larger amblement of the cost of the c 1988. No paper in the West or South is read by a larger audience, and no paper in America has a range of circulation which is no extensive. The Country-Journal goes to every State and Territory of the Union, and to every city and almost every town in Europe. It has a greater circle of readers in Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, Arkaness, Mississippi, and Indians than any paper published in those States. In Georgia, Alabama, Illinois, and Missouri it is popularly known. Its patronage is every day increasing. Its sphere of influence is every where broadening.

ITS CHARACTER AND CONTENTS.

HE COURIER JOURNAL is printed on one of the largest newspaper sheets in America, and its great area of space is covered by able and helliant leaders upon current affairs, political and social; by writes and convent caragraphs by for, in the case of Sarsaparilla, it is a well-known has that at least nine-senies of the root on the marks it gathely iner from bad manting or age.
